

Registered Veterinary Nurse

 Anicare Veterinary Group

 Dublin

 Full Time, Permanent /
Flexible Part Time options available

 Up to €39,000

The Role

Anicare Veterinary Group is seeking an enthusiastic RVN to join our growing team in their main Orthopaedic hospital in Clontarf.

Anicare is a progressive small animal general practice with a busy and interesting surgical and medical caseload. We have many cert holders within our practices that you will have the opportunity to work with and gain invaluable experience from. We have suitable positions for full or part-time experienced nurses but are equally happy to provide training to any new graduate in the form of our graduate academy and in-house training. We strive to provide a great work life balance and there are no OOH duties. We supply a generous CPD allowance and certificates are encouraged and fully funded.

Salary for this role is up to €39,000 depending on experience and hours undertaken.

A relocation allowance of €500 is also available for candidates moving to the area for the position.

About Us

Anicare Veterinary Group is a progressive, North Dublin based hospital group. Situated close to Dublin city centre and the idyllic Dublin coastline. We pride ourselves on our welcoming team who are committed to patient and client care. Working between our well-equipped branches will ensure you see a varied caseload and allow use of all our facilities.

About the Team and Culture

Our team currently consists of FTE 16 Veterinary Surgeons, over 25 Veterinary Nurses and many support staff across all our practices. We have many certificate holders in anaesthesia, small animal surgery, feline medicine and more. Our team is friendly and driven, we offer a supportive environment and actively encourage further development.

Applicant Requirements

We are looking for a Veterinary Nurse registered with the VCI, we are happy to accept applications from experienced individuals looking for a supportive environment to develop their career and new graduates looking for a fantastic starting point in their veterinary career.
